CITATION

Affiliated with the Connecticut National Bank since 1940 and former chairman of its Executive Committee, Alexander Hawley is a giant in the banking and business communities, highly regarded by his peers.

A graduate of Yale University, he has been a visionary leader in the field of education, seeing many of his dreams fulfilled serving as a trustee of Sacred Heart University, a member of the Board of Associates of the University of Bridgeport and a former treasurer of the United Negro College Fund.

A tireless worker on behalf of St. Vincent's Medical Center in Bridgeport, he chaired the Development Committee which guided the hospital through a major expansion program.

He has touched the lives of people in every walk of life as he has helped expand the resources for health, education and productivity in Southwestern Connecticut. His influence has spread beyond our region, his leadership cited by professional, philanthropic, social service and religious groups in the state and the nation.

Sacred Heart University bestows an extraordinary honor upon itself as it confers its highest accolade, the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, upon

ALEXANDER HAWLEY

CITATION

With a degree in liberal arts from Maryknoll College and additional studies in the field of chemical engineering, Frank J. Connor set forth on a career path that has led him to a high plateau in the industrial world.

He joined M&T Chemicals, Inc. in 1957 as a management trainee and rose through the ranks to become president. When M&T was acquired by American Can Company, his expertise and leadership qualities brought added distinction to the corporate structure. He served as senior vice president and group executive of American Can International, president of the parent company, and in 1983 was appointed to the Office of the Chairman.

Dedicated to the concept of corporate social responsibility, he is a vice chairman of the board of directors of the Southwestern Area Commerce and Industry Association of Connecticut, Inc. and a member of the board of governors of the Can Manufacturers Institute.

Keenly involved with civic as well as business concerns, he serves his home and corporate communities of Stamford and Greenwich with the same dedication and loyalty as he has demonstrated in industry.

Sacred Heart University bestows an extraordinary honor upon itself as it confers its highest accolade, the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, upon

FRANK J. CONNOR

CITATION

Some people are destined to break ground with tradition in reaching out for a full expression of excellence. Christine M. Niedermeier, today, chosen by the graduating Class of 1985, is the youngest commencement speaker and honoree in the 22-year history of Sacred Heart University.

A practicing attorney, a distinguished and tireless legislator, a dedicated civic leader, an enthusiastic worker in the political arena, State Representative Niedermeier is a role model for students stepping out into the larger sphere today. She is a believer in herself and an optimist in society.

A resident of Fairfield, Representative Niedermeier, now in her fourth term representing the 134th Assembly District, has gained a reputation throughout the state and at the national level for thorough and intelligent presentation of issues.

A former RTM member in Fairfield with ongoing service in local organizations, she is sensitive to the concerns and needs of the people and protective of the environment in which they live. It is indeed no surprise that each year since 1979 Representative Niedermeier has been selected as an "Outstanding Young Woman of America."

Sacred Heart University bestows an extraordinary honor upon itself as it confers its highest accolade, the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, upon

CHRISTINE M. NIEDERMEIER

CITATION

Internationally-known communication specialist Frank Shakespeare has by word and deed underscored the importance of education — to be knowledgeable, discerning, and articulate. Through affiliations with commercial as well as governmental media, he has opened up new channels of communication, diligent that the message be clear and cogent and freely transmitted throughout the world.

A graduate of Holy Cross College and a veteran of the United States Navy, he affiliated with CBS, Inc. in 1950, rising to the presidency of CBS Television Services. From 1969 through 1973, he directed the United States Information Agency. He then joined Westinghouse Electric Corp. as executive vice president and several years later was named president of RKO General, Inc., currently serving as vice chairman.

Dedicated to the thoughtful exchange of ideas and information, he is affiliated with educational and public policy institutions. Ever championing the open air waves, he is chairman of Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty, Inc.

Sacred Heart University bestows an extraordinary honor upon itself as it confers its highest accolade, the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, upon

ON ACADEMIC DRESS . . .

Tradition holds that the cap and gown were first used in ancient Greece when only youths of wealthy parents or ones with patrons attended school. The wise teachers of the time believed that fine clothing and jewels should not be worn by the scholar but rather, that he should wear the principle garments of the workman.

In the United States, the gown commonly worn for both the associate's and bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves (with a slit for the arm). It is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist. The gown for the doctor's degree has bell-shaped open sleeves. All gowns are black and without trimming with the exception of the doctor's which normally is trimmed with velvet, has three bars or chevrons on the sleeves and may be in a distinctive color(s) governed by the school granting that degree. Master's and doctor's gowns may be worn open.

Upon graduation, each student of old carried a mortarboard showing him to be a mason of the future destined to build empires or cities or fountains of wisdom on the firm foundation of knowledge. To this day, graduates wear the mortarboard cap and gown, symbolizing that they are builders of the future of mankind.

The history of the hood with which degree recipients are invested dates back to 13th century England. Whether its origin is ecclesiastical or secular has never been settled. Hoods are two and one-half feet long for the associate's, three feet for the bachelor's, three and one-half for the master's and four feet for the doctor's degree. The hood is lined with the colors of the institution — red and white, in the case of Sacred Heart University. The color of the trim indicates the academic degree — white for arts, letters and humanities (B.A.) . . . golden yellow for science (B.S.).

The hoods of those with graduate degrees, as well as the tassels on the mortarboards of the undergraduates, are often in the color associated with the academic field of specialization, as follows:

Arts, Letters and Humanities	White
Business	Drab
Education	Light Blue
Fine Arts	Brown
Law	Purple
Media Studies	Crimson
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Science	Golden Yellow
Sociology/Social Work/Criminal Justice	Citron
Theology/Religious Studies	Scarlet
